

Senior Adult "Spring Celebration"

Worship led by

Jeff Cleghorn
Musician

John Bryan
Speaker

March 19 & 20, 2018

(Monday and Tuesday)

10:30 a.m.

Hardwick Baptist Church

124 Thomas Street
Hardwick, GA 31034
478-452-1612

Free soup and sandwich lunch following the services.

Sponsored by Hardwick Baptist Church &
Washington Baptist Association

A love offering will be taken at each service.

Jeff Cleghorn, Musician

Jeff Cleghorn is a native of Warner Robins, Georgia. He graduated from Warner Robins Christian Academy in 1988. He received a Bachelor of Music degree from Mercer University in Macon, Georgia, in 1993; a Master of Arts in Church Ministries degree from Luther Rice Seminary in Atlanta, Georgia, in 2005; and an Associate of Arts in Funeral Science degree from Ogeechee Technical College in Statesboro, Georgia, in 2001.

From May 1988 until June 1994, Jeff served as the church organist of Second Baptist Church in Warner Robins, Georgia. He was called as full-time Minister of Instrumental Music in June 2004, where his responsibilities included establishing and directing the Church Orchestra, establishing and serving as administrator of the Conservatory of Music, and assisting the Minister of Music in day-to-day operations of the Music Ministry. By the summer of 2008, the Church Orchestra had grown to nearly 40 players, and the Conservatory of Music provided private music lessons for over 200 students each semester.

In addition to his full-time solo ministry, Jeff travels with his family, performing Southern Gospel music as The Cleghorns (www.thecleghorns.com). From 2004 to 2013, Jeff served as crusade pianist for Bailey Smith Real Evangelism Conferences across the country, and has played for Phil Waldrep Celebrators' Conferences as well.

Dr. John Bryan, Speaker

John was born and raised in Atlanta, GA, married Clare, his high school sweetheart who led him to Christ. They are blessed to have three married sons and five granddaughters. Two sons are ordained ministers and serving in student ministries in Augusta, Georgia.

He attended Wofford College to play football/track; then transferred and graduated from Emory University while pursuing law school. His theological training was received from Southwestern Baptist Seminary and Columbia Theological Seminary.

John has served in churches in Georgia and Texas and is presently a State Missionary with the Georgia Baptist Mission Board. He has had the privilege of serving many churches as an interim pastor and has led mission teams across America and throughout the world. His radio ministry is broadcast daily in the state and on internet radio. John's current assignment with the Georgia Baptist Mission Board is to creatively advance and equip churches in missions and ministry.