

Thoughts From Doug

Over the years, the following members served as faithful Camp Directors:

Carlton & Elaine Ellington
James Davis, Sr.
Marlene Peavy
Cindy English & Leah Powell

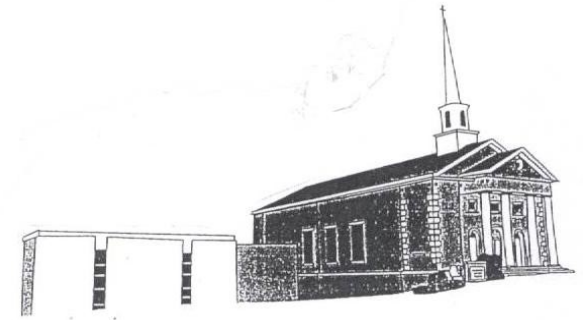

There are so many volunteers who worked to make camp possible that it is impossible to list them without leaving someone out. Most current former members aged 60 and under either attended or worked in camp, or provided needed supplies.

Originally camp was just for children and youth of the Hardwick Baptist family, but it expanded over the years until it reached many from other churches, towns, and even states. Many who attended camp, both as campers and/or leaders, have gone on to serve God and the church through various forms of vocational ministry, including Andy and David Chancey, Jim Davis, Jr., Bo Prosser, David Ray, Allison Lepper Swaggerty, Tanya Lepper Parks, and Clay Fallin. Today there are countless people living out their vocational calling in other areas—educators, health service professionals, attorneys, business professionals, community leaders, in military service, etc.--who attended Hardwick Baptist camp over the years. The ministry of the camps lives on today—specifically through the ministry to children in the Hardwick community who come to our property each Wednesday and Sunday. God continues to use those formational experiences to touch lives for the sake of God's kingdom. Thanks be to God for the amazing gift of Hardwick Baptist Church camp! At Homecoming we will celebrate that legacy, and look with faith and confidence toward the new thing that God is doing among us.

Love and Blessings! Doug
