

Thoughts From Doug

We are trying to update the congregation (and friends) weekly concerning the particular opportunity for Adult Discipleship—through the Herald as well as the Sunday bulletin and reminders from the pulpit. It is necessary to do this because of the variety of services we offer. As you may or may not remember, each month we have two special prayer services. On the first Tuesday of each month we have a service of prayer incorporating the prayer songs of Taize, Scripture, and periods of silent prayer. On the third Tuesday of each month, we have a Service of Healing Prayers. Since our November Taize Prayer service is next week (November 5), I am utilizing this week's article to educate you a little more about this meaningful service.

I first learned of Taize prayer services when I was working on my Doctor of Ministry degree—which I was pursuing because I felt a calling to help prepare the church to grow spiritually. I attend the Taize prayer service that was held at the church next to the campus and was especially moved. A couple of years later, a former youth group member, while pursuing his seminary studies, traveled with American Baptist young adults to spend a week in Taize, France. Through his experience and testimony, I became more appreciative of these prayer services.

About the Taize Community: Taize is a monastic community in southeastern France. It was founded in 1940 with the mission of healing the division between Christians and within the human family. They seek to create a place where reconciliation can become a concrete reality every day. Thousands of people from all over the world, young, and old, gather at Taize every week to pray, search, sing, and find refreshment and renewal. The worship of Taize is marked by depth and simplicity, consisting of much singing along with significant periods of silent meditation.

Meditative Singing: Short songs, repeated again and again, give the service a meditative character. Using just a few words, they express a basic reality of faith, quickly grasped by the mind. As the words are sung over many times, this reality gradually penetrates the whole being. Meditative singing thus becomes a way of listening to God. It allows everyone to take part in a time of prayer together and to remain together in attentive waiting on God, without having to fix the length of time too exactly.

To open the gates of trust in God, nothing can replace the beauty of human voices united in song. This beauty can give us a glimpse of “heaven’s joy on earth,” as Eastern Christians put it. And an inner life begins to blossom within us. These songs also sustain personal prayer. Through them, little by little, our being finds an inner unity in God. The songs continue in the silence of our hearts when we are at work, speaking with others, or resting. In this way, prayer and daily life are united. They allow us to keep on praying even when we are unaware of it, in the silence of our hearts.

Listening to Scripture, Listening for God; Taize prayer services always utilize periods of silence—silence after singing songs, silence after hearing Scripture read. In next week’s article, I will say more about “silence and prayer.” For now: I hope you will come to the HBC sanctuary at 6:30 P.M. November 5, for a Service of Evening Prayer in the manner of the community of Taize.
