Pentecost Sunday

This Sunday is Pentecost Sunday, the day when the Holy Spirit gave life to the church. The first Christians became a family "of one heart and soul" (Acts 4:32 nrsv). We, too, can be in union with one another if we allow the Holy Spirit to fill our hearts.

Thank you for your faithfulness in giving through our online giving and by mail. The spirit of HBC continues to be strong as you pray, check on each other and give. Be safe...We hope it won't be long until we can worship together.

Sunday Sharing Questions For May 31

Psalm 104:24-35—Just as God's gift of the Spirit in Acts does not eliminate diversity, but enables understanding among a variety of peoples, Psalm 104 celebrates the diversity of life on earth—and argues that God's gifts of food and breath are for the well-being of all, not the exclusive privilege of a select few.

Numbers 11:24-30—Why do you think some Christians have a hard time accepting the fact that God's Spirit sometimes works outside the bounds that we expect?

Why do we struggle with jealousy when others go about God's work in a way that is very different?

John 7:37-39—In what ways have you experienced "rivers of living water" flowing out of your life into others?

Acts 2:1-21—When have you experienced cross-cultural understanding as the work of the Spirit?

"Only those who see the Invisible can do the impossible."
