For every kind of beast and bird, of reptile and sea creature, can be tamed and has been tamed by mankind, but no human being can tame the tongue. James 3:7-8

Words are powerful. The apostle James communicates to the Church that the tongue and our words that come forth into speech must be weighed carefully so that we are mindful of their impact. Our words can be used to encourage and build up or conversely; they can be a destructive force creating division leaving wounded people in the wake of ill-spoken words. Words can be as destructive as poison or they can bring healing. Therefore, let us speak wisely, in love, to encourage and lift others up so we are certain to communicate God's grace, mercy, forgiveness, and gentleness to others.
