The camp followers with them had a strong craving, and the Israelites also wept again and said, "If only we had meat to eat! We remember the fish we used to eat for nothing, the cucumbers, the melons, the leeks, the onions and the garlic, but now our strength is dried up, and there is nothing at all but this manna to look at." Numbers 11:4-6

Can we identify with these grumbling children of Israel longing for the good old days? They missed some of their favorite foods—their diet lacked variety and they grew tired of the manna God had provided. The pouting Israelites' vision may have been blurred by their tears. Had they forgotten the rigors and abuse they had endured as slaves? Do we long for the days when our bodies were more flexible and vigorous and our energy did not disappear more quickly than the sun at day's end? Even today, the human experience seems to provide daily opportunities to whine and complain or to the contrary we can count our blessings—which do we choose? Grumbling can be habit forming—let us instead excel in offering gratitude to God! Blessings, Ron McClung, Pastor
