"I sought to hear the voice of God and climbed the topmost steeple, but God declared: 'Get down again—I dwell among the people.'"
John Henry Newman

O Lord, Our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth.

How long has it been since your breath was taken away by a sight of God's handiwork? Maybe it was the foam of the sea washing over your bare feet along the seashore as you looked out on the breadth and depth of the mighty ocean waters. Maybe you've driven in the beauty of the foothills of the mountains and watched cascading leaves in a myriad of colors blowing across the highway. Or perhaps you've held a newborn lately and marveled as the child's fingers instinctively reach out to touch you. Maybe you heard a song or prayer voiced by a friend that touched you deeply and you breathed a prayer of thanks for such a witness. Open your eyes wide this week and behold God's presence and majesty all around us.

Blessings, Ron McClung, Pastor
