Like a Pumpkin

Be well-rounded. Keep Growing
Give thanks for life's bounty.
Be outstanding in your field.

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to him and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." And he said to them, "What is it you want me to do for you?" And they said to him " Appoint us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory." Mark 10:35-37

Poor James and John—perhaps they had hoped their overzealous desire for special recognition from Jesus would not have been announced publicly so the other disciples would not know their secret plan. It is also quite possible the other disciples are only upset because they didn't make the request first. Notice how Jesus doesn't allow bitterness and resentment to grow in the group by ignoring the problem. Straightforwardly, he advises all of them that in His Kingdom persons get to the top by serving others and putting themselves last. What an upside-down Jesus sort of idea! Serving others rather than self is the key to growing closer to God. Let's give it a try!
