What a blessing to journey to Eatonton with a group from Hardwick on Sunday evening to hear The Ballad of Bethlehem-a Christmas musical by composer Pepper Choplin presented by three choirs from Putnam county churches. We were challenged to share and live the story so everyone may experience the hope, peace, joy, and love of God at this Advent season. The final song was my favorite:

I want to shout with the shepherds and sing with the angels and hurry to the town of Bethlehem.

I want to walk with the Wise Men to where the child was born.

I want to worship Christ the Lord!

Christmas music truly is designed to lead us to worship God at the manger's side. Come join us during Advent as we worship God's greatest gift.

Blessings, Ron McClung, Pastor
