"Life's most persistent and urgent question is: What are you doing for others?" Martin Luther King

"The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others." Mahatma Gandhi

Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others 1 Peter 4:10a

This verse reflects the example of so many faithful members of Hardwick Baptist Church both past and present, including Ms. Jean Towns. The reception for her this past Sunday afternoon was an acknowledgement of her dedicated service in music ministry for thirty year! As I survey the pews on any given Sunday, I am reminded of many in our congregation who use their gifts to serve one another week after week. In a small congregation it is difficult to adopt the attitude of some in larger churches who might reason that someone else can do whatever needs to be done, in a small church—all hands on deck are required—every member must answer the call to minister to one another. Come join us as we serve one another.

Blessings, Ron McClung, Pastor
