Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. Matthew 11:28-29

Jesus extends an invitation to each of us that merits our undivided attention. While the religious leaders of his day often heaped more burdens on the people and added guilt as a side—Jesus offered an alternative. His offer of rest sounds almost too good to be true for those who are weary from the relentless and hurried pace of life. The rest He provides is good for the soul. It brings refreshment, joy, affirmation, and a deep peace to those who are weary from carrying so many burdens and so much stuff. Erma Bombeck, the humorist once said, worry is like sitting in a rocking chair—it keeps you busy but gets you nowhere. Sit with Jesus quietly for a spell—discover the rest that is good medicine for your soul.
